

BUSINESS NEWS IN BRIEF

Tait, Younk Join Three Rivers

Three Rivers Corp. of Midland has recently added Shannon Tait and Greg Younk to the company's staff.

Shannon
Tait

Tait, project manager, joined the Three Rivers team in early 2011. She has more than 27 years of experience in project management and estimating large multi-million dollar projects. Tait has a wide range of project experience that includes commercial, health care, industrial and manufacturing, government and military and retail. She holds a bachelors of science in civil engineering from Michigan Technological University, Houghton.

Greg Younk

Younk, maintenance manager, is another addition to Three Rivers this year. He brings more than 25 years of general mechanical management experience. Younk has 10 years of experience as a mechanical project manager/estimator and 15 years of executive experience in operations, engineering maintenance services and project safety administration. In addition, he holds Michigan licenses for master plumber, high pressure boiler and mechanical license.

Three Rivers (www.trcompany.com) provides construction and design services to the industrial, commercial and institutional markets.

Callahan named loan sales manager at Wolverine Bank

Wolverine Bank recently named Jill Callahan loan sales manager.

Callahan comes to Wolverine Bank with 12 years of banking and mortgage lending experience, including positions as branch manager and most recently vice president, senior mortgage loan officer. She will be in charge of managing and increasing Wolverine Bank's loan volume in the Bay City and Saginaw areas.

"The addition of Jill Callahan as our loan sales manager for the Bay and Saginaw areas further strengthens our ability to meet the needs of our customers," Jeff Southcott, executive vice president of Wolverine Bank, said. "Her comprehensive understanding of the mortgage lending process combined with her reputation for quality, service and uncompromised ethics will greatly benefit Wolverine Bank, our lending team and most importantly, our customers."

Callahan has a bachelor of science degree from Michigan State University, Lyman Briggs College of Math and Science. She is a graduate of Leadership Bay County, currently serves as secretary for the Dow Bay Area Family Y board of directors and is an affiliate member of the Realtor Association of Bay County and the Bay County Home Builders Association.

A Bay City native, Jill resides in Essexville with her husband, Scott, and their three children.

Moody named president of Home Builders Association of Midland

Chad Moody recently was named as the president of the Home Builders Association and officially began his term on Jan. 1.

He was born and raised in Midland and is a graduate of H.H. Dow High School and went through the Midland Public School's building trades program. Moody started working in the building trades industry at age 16 and worked for several builders in Midland and is now the co-owner of Dakota Builders.

Dakota Builders was founded in 1993 by Moody and Glenn Krawczak. Moody and Dakota Builders not only contribute time and talent to the Home Builders Association but also to such organizations as the Midland Morning Rotary Club, Cancer Services of Midland, North Midland Family Center, Whiting Forest and downtown Midland events.

Chad
Moody

Carroll named to Duro-Last post

Duro-Last Roofing has added Bill Carroll to its staff to support authorized Duro-Last contractors and provide continued customer service.

Carroll was named the vice president of manufacturing and is based in the Saginaw office. He is responsible for overseeing the plant operations of all four Duro-Last locations as well as Plastatech Engineering, Ltd.; Oscoda Plastics, Inc.; EXCEPTIONAL Metals, and TIP-TOP Screw Manufacturing. His responsibilities include oversight of production, quality, inventory and safety, with the overall objectives of meeting customer delivery requirements and company sales and profitability goals.

Carroll has more than 25 years in leadership positions in multi-plant manufacturing environments, most recently as plant manager for Gardner Denver Thomas, a manufacturer of industrial pumps for the medical and environmental industries. He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he received both a bachelor's and master's degree in industrial engineering.

Zdyb joins NetSource One

NetSource One has added Tony Zdyb of Midland as a senior systems engineer.

Zdyb holds an industry MCP and MCSE certification and has more than 19 years experience in the IT industry.

He has an expansive background in O/S platforms, network administration, project planning, data preservation and recovery, secure wireless access and disaster recovery. In addition, Zdyb has extensive experience in hardware implementation, troubleshooting and support.

NetSource One, located at 5410 Hampton Place in Saginaw, currently employs 23 people with various technical expertise and professional certifications and maintains formal partnerships with companies such as Cisco, Dell, HP, Microsoft, IBM and Novell.

Dunn named Midland HBA Associate of the Year

The Home Builders Association of Midland board of directors selected David Dunn of Wolverine Bank as the recipient of the 2011 Associate of the Year Award.

Dunn has been instrumental as the treasurer of the HBA of Midland for several years, and continues to provide leadership and vision to the association.

Dunn is president and CEO of Wolverine Bank, Midland. After his banking career began in Southeast Michigan in 1975, he joined Wolverine Bank in 1981 and was appointed president in 1987.

Dunn's focus has been to enhance Wolverine Bank's efforts in assisting customers achieve their financial goals, increase value to the bank's shareholders, provide enrichment and advancement opportunities for employees and make positive contributions in the communities the bank serves.

Dunn has served as chairman for the Michigan League of Community Banks, Midland Area Chamber of Commerce, MidMichigan Health System, MidMichigan Medical Center-Midland, Saginaw Valley State University's board of fellows, Saginaw Valley Torch Club and the United Way of Midland annual campaign. Past service also includes vice chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis and board member for Delta College Foundation, Matrix Midland, Midland Rotary and the Voluntary Action Center.

In addition to being treasurer of the Home Builder's Association of Midland, he is also the adviser to Mackinac Center MidMichigan board of advisors, and president of Midland Tomorrow. He serves on the boards of the Great Lakes Bay Regional Alliance (chairs the Advocacy Council), Northwood University Department of Banking and Finance, Saginaw Valley State University Foundation, The Strosacker Foundation and Wolverine Bank.

Dunn received his bachelor of science degree in business administration from Ohio State University and his master of business administration from the University of Michigan. He and his wife, Susan, have two sons, a daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, two grandchildren, and are members of First United Methodist Church.

David
Dunn

Wall named Builder of the Year

The Home Builders Association of Midland board of directors has selected Kelly Wall, of Greystone Homes, LLC, as the recipient of the 2011 Builder of the Year Award.

Wall dedicated his time and talent as the HBA president from 2010-2011, currently serves on the HBA executive committee and actively participates in the Midland Home and Garden Show and both the Spring and Fall Parade of Homes events.

Kelly and his wife, Melissa, live in Midland, have five children and most recently opened up a Greystone Homes showroom facility at 6408 W. Wackerly, Midland.

Kelly
Wall